TERMINATION

20. TERMINATION BY THE EMPLOYER

In the event that the employee's employment is terminated either by the employee or the employer, the employee agrees that the employer has the right to set off against or deduct from the employee's salary or other entitlements (including but not limited to, any vacation pay or general holiday pay, the employee is entitled to at law, or any salary in lieu of notice payable in accordance with the offer letter) any sum of money that is owing to the employer at the time of termination.

- a. The employer may terminate an employee's employment at any time, whether during or after the probationary period, for cause without notice of compensation in lieu thereof.
- b. At any time during the probationary period, the employer may terminate the employee's employment for any reason, in its absolute discretion, without notice or salary in lieu thereof. In the event that the probationary period is longer than three (3) months or is extended beyond a three (3) month period, the employer will provide one (1) week notice or salary in lieu thereof in the event of termination.
- c. At any time following the probationary period, the employer may terminate or alter the employee's employment for any reason, in its absolute discretion, by providing the employee with written notice or salary in lieu of notice, or a combination thereof, equal to the minimum requirements of the Employment Standards Code, which is outlined in the Employment Standards Guide. No notice or salary in lieu of notice in excess of the minimums of the Employment Standards Code shall be provided.
- d. It is understood and agreed that the above notice or payment in lieu of notice, or combination thereof, is reasonable and adequate notice, and will fulfill all requirements for notice, or payment in lieu of notice imposed by law.
- e. Upon termination or alteration of the employee's employment as set out herein, it is understood that the employee shall have no further claims against, or be entitled to any further remuneration or compensation from the employer arising out of the termination or alteration of the employment.

21. TERMINATION BY THE EMPLOYEE

An employee may terminate their employment at any time by providing to the employer notice in writing, as per Employment Standards, to that effect. The employer may decide, in its sole discretion, to waive the employee's required notice of termination.

22. TERMINATION OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

In the event that your employment is terminated either by you or the employer, you agree that the employer has the right to set off against or deduct from your salary or other entitlements (including but not limited to, any vacation pay or general holiday pay you are entitled to at law, or any salary in lieu of notice payable in accordance with the offer letter) any sum of money that is owing to the employer at the time of termination.

You agree that the employer has the right to enact or invoke policies and procedures governing its employees, and you agree to be bound by all such policies and procedures, except where they specifically contradict the terms of this offer of employment. The employer reserves the right to amend the Central Office Support Staff Handbook from time to time.

*Please note: if there is a conflict between the terms and conditions outlined in this offer of employment and the Central Office Support Staff Handbook, the terms and conditions outlined in this offer of employment will govern.

23. RETIREMENT

In the event that your employment ends due to retirement, a letter of resignation stating such is required by Human Resources. This letter should be submitted at a minimum of 40 days prior to retirement date. This will provide the employee the opportunity if eligible to continue with benefits with Alberta School Employee Benefit Plan (ASEBP), as an early retiree with the required amount of notice ASEBP requires. As an individual participating in an employer sponsored ASEBP benefit plan, you can apply to continue your benefits coverage into your retirement, providing you meet the following conditions:

- You are at least 50 years of age before the date of your retirement;
- You must have been working for an ASEBP participating employer for a minimum of five (5) consecutive years leading up to your retirement;
- You must be a resident of Canada and be covered by a provincial health care program;
- ASEBP must receive your completed Early Retiree Application, available from your employer at a minimum of 31 days prior to your last day of employment.

The retirement notice will also ensure the employee is included in the Division Employee Recognition Program for that school year.
